Secretary Schurz, in response to in-quiry concerning the kind of civil servpromotions in the Interior Department, stated that at present the general prin-ciples of capacity and fitness will be required, but that in the course of the next two weeks some more detailed exminations will be established. Though whether they will comprehend the sys tem laid down by the late Civil Service Commission, or to be entirely original, or a combination of a part of the old code with something to be devised and determined upon, he is not prepared, at present, to state.

The Policy of Peace.

Judge M.W.Gibbs (colored), of Arkan-sas, who was an Elector at Large on the Republican ticket, had an interview with the President, and in the course of their conversation the former re-marked that the nomination of Mr. Key as Postmaster General had created some alarm among the colored people of the country, but that it was fully offset by the nomination of Mr. Douglass. He assured the President that the colo ed people intend to support him in his measures of reconciliation between the sections and the races. The President replied that he was sincere in his policy and would adhere to it unless it should prove to be impracticable. For eight years the policy of force and the musket bad been tried in the South but had failed, and public sentiment demanded a change.
